1. Overview of Operating Results

(1) Explanation of operating results for the fiscal year under review

The Company aims to become a “strong company capable of sustainable growth, using food as a means of resolving social issues” under the four-year Mid-Term Management Plan starting from the fiscal year ended December 2022. The Company has been working on the basic strategy to achieve sustainable growth by taking four actions (“1. Promote behavioral change in terms of vegetable intake,” “2. Change to fan-based marketing,” “3. Pursue both organic and inorganic growth,” and “4. Strengthen the Group’s management foundation and foster a culture for tackling challenges”), which are organically connected, in an effort to further enhance corporate value.

In the fiscal year under review (January 1 to December 31, 2025), economic instability persisted amid growing uncertainty surrounding the policies of countries around the world. Japan continued to face uncertainty regarding the future outlook because of consumers’ heightened awareness toward cutting costs in the face of ongoing inflation.

Under such circumstances, the Domestic Processed Food Business achieved revenue growth, driven by efforts to expand demand across all categories in addition to entering the new field of plant-based milk. Core operating income remained on par with the previous fiscal year due to the continued increase in raw materials and other manufacturing costs.

In the International Business, as international market conditions for tomato paste turned downward, we lowered the selling prices in tomato and other primary processing and tomato and other secondary processing, which mainly handle these products, and experienced problems in the manufacturing process, resulting in lower revenue and core operating income.

Accordingly, revenue in the fiscal year under review decreased to 294,264 million yen, down 4.1% year on year, and core operating income declined to 22,694 million yen, down 16.2% year on year. In the previous consolidated fiscal year, the Company made Ingomar Packing Company, LLC (“Ingomar”) a consolidated subsidiary and it recorded 9,323 million yen in “other income” as a gain on step acquisitions. As a result, operating income decreased to 22,638 million yen, down 37.5% year on year, and net income attributable to shareholders of parent decreased to 14,800 million yen, down 40.8% compared to the previous fiscal year.

*Core operating income is the profit indicator which measures recurring business performance by deducting cost of sales and selling, general and administrative expenses from revenue and adding equity gains (losses) of affiliated companies.

Business results by segment are outlined below.

<Domestic Processed Food Business>

In the Domestic Processed Food Business, the Company manufactures and sells beverages, condiments, and other products.

Revenue for this business increased to 157,324 million yen, up 1.0% year on year, and core operating income decreased to 15,507 million yen, down 0.4% year on year.

[Beverages: Yasai Seikatsu 100 series, tomato juice, Yasai Ichinichi Kore Ippon, and others]

In the beverage category, tomato juice remained strong. Strengthening our appeal to individuals with elevated blood pressure has contributed to the acquisition of new users. In addition, the Yasai Seikatsu 100 series marked its 30th anniversary, during which we strengthened promotional efforts positioning it as a “healthy drink for the family.”

As a result of the above, revenue for this category increased to 84,185 million yen, up 1.8% year on year, and core operating income declined to 8,616 million yen, down 5.3% year on year because of rising raw materials prices and other manufacturing costs.

[Direct marketing: vegetable beverages, supplements, soups, etc., sold via direct marketing service Kenko Chokusobin]

In the direct marketing category, the Company engages in Kenko Chokusobin, a direct marketing service involving the manufacture and sale mainly of vegetable beverages, supplements, soups and other products.

In the direct marketing category, sales of vegetable beverages and soups were strong, boosted by targeted investment in advertising.

Accordingly, revenue for this category increased to 13,993 million yen, up 4.7% year on year, and core operating income rose to 990 million yen, up 313.3% compared to the previous fiscal year.

[Food-Other: tomato ketchup, tomato condiments, sauces, gifts, and others]

Food products saw revenue growth, supported by intensified marketing efforts and the strategic promotion of key items including “Kagome Napolitan Stadium” and “baked ketchup.”

Revenue from institutional and industrial use products of the Food-Other category decreased. This resulted from a decline in sales of frozen foods to major restaurant chains, despite sales of tomato ketchup remaining steady.

In the gifts and specialty items category, sales of contract manufactured products decreased, but sales of gift items remained strong, resulting in revenue remaining at the same level as the previous fiscal year.

Accordingly, revenue in the Food-Other category decreased to 59,145 million yen, down 0.8% year on year, and core operating income declined to 5,900 million yen, down 5.3% year on year.

<International Business>

Our International Business encompasses agricultural production, product development, processing, and sales.

Revenue for this business decreased to 129,837 million yen, down 13.0% year on year, and core operating income decreased to 9,283 million yen, down 33.4% year on year.

[Tomato and other primary processing: tomato paste, diced tomatoes, carrot juice, frozen Mediterranean vegetables, etc.]

Primary processed tomato products saw a decrease in revenue, reflecting lower selling prices in the U.S., particularly at Ingomar, as well as in Europe, and Australia, due to a global softening in supply-demand conditions for tomato paste, as well as delays in customers picking up their products.

Accordingly, revenue in the tomato and other primary processing category decreased to 69,639 million yen, down 15.3% year on year, and core operating income declined to 5,376 million yen, down 36.0% year on year.

[Tomato and other secondary processing: pizza sauce, barbecue sauce, tomato ketchup, etc.]

Revenue in the tomato and other secondary processing category decreased due to weaker sales to the Company, a reduction in selling prices for secondary processed tomatoes caused by a decline in the tomato paste market, and sluggish sales at some customers, among other factors.

Accordingly, revenue in the tomato and other secondary processing category decreased to 63,617 million yen, down 9.8% year on year, and core operating income declined to 4,419 million yen, down 36.9% year on year.

<Other Businesses>

The other businesses segment includes the Domestic Agri-Business, seedling production and sales, development of new plant varieties and cultivation technologies, the real estate business, and new businesses, etc.

Revenue increased to 22,361 million yen, up 2.3% year on year, and core operating income decreased to 455 million yen, down 24.9% year on year.

(2) Explanation of financial conditions for the fiscal year under review

Consolidated total assets as of December 31, 2025 increased by 13,404 million yen from the end of the previous fiscal year.

Current assets increased by 6,820 million yen from the end of the previous fiscal year.

This was mainly attributable to increases in cash and cash equivalents of 5,570 million yen, mainly as a result of an increase in borrowings, and trade and other receivables of 1,126 million yen.

Non-current assets increased by 6,583 million yen from the end of the previous fiscal year.

This was mainly attributable to increases in other financial assets of 4,681 million yen due to a valuation gain on securities and in property, plant and equipment of 2,706 million yen due to progress on capital investments.

Liabilities increased by 10,155 million yen from the end of the previous fiscal year.

This was mainly attributable to increases in borrowings of 7,752 million yen and in long-term borrowings of 2,026 million yen from heightened demand for capital.

Net assets increased by 3,249 million yen from the end of the previous fiscal year. This was due to net income attributable to shareholders of parent of 14,800 million yen in the fiscal year under review and an increase in other components of equity of 3,192 million yen mainly from the impact of a valuation gain on securities. These exceeded the decreases of 8,235 million yen due to purchase of treasury shares and 5,344 million yen from payment of dividends of surplus.

As a result, net assets attributable to shareholders of parent to total assets was 50.7%, and net assets attributable to shareholders of parent per share was 2,097.10 yen.

(3) Explanation of cash flows for the fiscal year under review

(Qualitative information regarding the state of consolidated cash flows)

Consolidated cash and cash equivalents for the fiscal year under review were 26,844 million yen, marking an increase of 5,570 million yen compared to the end of the previous fiscal year. The state of each type of cash flow is explained below.

Net cash provided by operating activities totaled 26,930 million yen (net cash of 31,692 million yen provided by operating activities in the previous fiscal year). The main factors were 7 of 21,118 million yen, depreciation and amortization of 11,814 million yen, and a decrease in inventories of 2,117 million yen (net cash provided by operating activities); and 4,723 million yen for the payment of income taxes and 2,430 million yen in interest paid (net cash used in operating activities).

Net cash used in investing activities totaled 11,485 million yen (net cash of 46,325 million yen used in investing activities in the previous fiscal year). The main factors were expenditures totaling 11,393 million yen for the acquisition of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets.

Net cash used in financing activities totaled 10,394 million yen (net cash of 571 million yen used in financing activities in the previous fiscal year). The main factor was proceeds of 10,382 million yen from long-term borrowings, while there were expenditures of 8,184 million yen for the repurchase of treasury shares, 5,753 million yen for the repayment of long-term borrowings, and 5,335 million yen for the payment of dividends.

Indicators related to the Group's cash flow are as follows.

Indicator	December 2024	December 2025
Net assets attributable to shareholders of parent to total assets (%)	51.3	50.7
Net assets attributable to shareholders of parent to total assets on a market value basis (%)	76.9	65.2
Interest-bearing debt to cash flow (years)	2.4	3.2
Interest coverage ratio (times)	10.3	11.1

Notes: Net assets attributable to shareholders of parent to Net assets attributable to shareholders of parent to total assets total assets: divided by total assets

Net assets attributable to shareholders of parent to Market capitalization divided by total assets total assets on a market value basis:

Interest-bearing debt to cash flow: Interest-bearing debt divided by operating cash flow

Interest coverage ratio: Operating cash flow divided by interest paid

1. Each indicator is calculated based on consolidated financial data.

2. Market capitalization is calculated by multiplying the closing year-end share price by the number of shares outstanding at year end (excluding treasury shares).

3. "Operating cash flow" uses "Cash flows from operating activities" appearing on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

"Interest-bearing debt" includes all debt on which interest is paid among liabilities recorded on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Position. In addition, "interest" uses "Interest paid" on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

(4) Future outlook

Fiscal year ending December 31, 2026 (Forecast)	310,000	23,000	23,000	13,400	147.47
Fiscal year ended December 31, 2025	294,264	22,694	22,638	14,800	161.42
Rate of change (%)	5.3%	— <sup>2</sup>	— <sup>2</sup>	(9.5%)	—

Notes:

1. Core operating income is the profit indicator which measures the Company's recurring business performance by deducting cost of sales and selling, general and administrative expenses from revenue and adding equity gains (losses) of affiliated companies.

The Company intends to adopt IFRS 18 Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements (hereafter, "IFRS 18") early, from the fiscal year ending December 2026. Because equity method investments gains and losses are not included in the operating category under this standard, equity method investment gains and losses are excluded in calculation of the consolidated earnings forecast for the fiscal year ending December 2026.

2. As stated above, the Company has taken the effects of early adoption of IFRS 18 into account in the consolidated earnings forecast for the fiscal year ending December 2026. The percentage change from the previous fiscal year is not provided because the Company intends to retroactively restate core operating income and operating income in the fiscal year ended December 2025 according to the change in accounting policy.

The Company aims to realize our 2035 Vision, Cultivating Nature's Potential, by working together to drive innovation from farm to everyday life and open new possibilities in nature, based on Kagome Group Plan 2028, our three-year mid-term management plan beginning in the fiscal year ending December 2026.

The Domestic Processed Food Business continues to see high prices for agricultural products that are our main raw materials. We therefore revised beverage prices for consumer and institutional and industrial use from February 1, 2026 deliveries onward. We are emphasizing the value added of domestic raw materials as an activity to strengthen our foundation while also pursuing revenue growth, and will work to achieve stable, sustainable procurement.

In the International Business, we will continue to transform tomato and other primary processing to a structure that can generate a consistent reasonable profit through initiatives with contract farmers and initiatives to reduce costs, automate, and achieve labor savings in primary processing lines, based on the premise that this business is affected by market conditions. In tomato and other secondary processing, we will focus on the large markets in the U.S. and Europe, and on India, where a high rate of growth is anticipated, as target areas. We will strive to expand our market share as a reliable supplier by leveraging our Group procurement and supply network.

For details about the Company's consolidated earnings forecast for the fiscal year ending December 2026, please see "Briefing Materials for FY2025 Results."

(5) Basic policy on distribution of profits and dividend for the fiscal year under review and subsequent fiscal year

1. Basic policy on distribution of profits

The Company's shareholder return policy for the fiscal year under review called for a total return ratio of 40% based on consolidated performance metrics during the four-year mid-term management plan which spanned from 2022 to 2025. It also stated that the Company was to provide a stable annual cash dividend of at least 38 yen per share.

2. Dividend for the fiscal year under review

Based on the policy described above, the Company has declared an annual dividend of 48 yen per share for the fiscal year under review.

3. Dividend for subsequent fiscal year

The Company recognizes that returning profits to shareholders is a critical task of management. Our shareholder return policy for Kagome Group Plan 2028, our mid-term management plan for 2026 to 2028, is to aim for a total return ratio of 50%, based on the cumulative consolidated results for the corresponding period. We aim to increase the dividend level in line with profit growth and our policy is to introduce a progressive dividend without dividend reductions and provide a stable cash dividend. If net income attributable to shareholders of parent should change significantly due to temporary factors, the effect of such factors will be excluded in calculating the total return ratio. The excluded profit or loss will be disclosed along with the reason.

We plan to increase the dividend for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2026 by 10 yen per share, from the ordinary dividend of 48 yen per share in the fiscal year ended December 2025 to 58 yen per share, in accordance with the new policy.

(Segment information, etc.)

(1) Summary of reportable segments

The Group's reportable segments are the constituent units of the Group for which separate financial information is available and which are regularly reviewed by the Board of Directors in order to decide on the allocation of management resources and evaluate business performance.

The Group has two main businesses: the Domestic Processed Food Business, which manufactures and sells beverages and condiments in Japan, and the International Business, which is involved in agricultural production, product development, processing, and sales overseas. In addition, taking into consideration the similarities in products, customers, and other factors as well as economic characteristics, the Group has consolidated its business segments for beverages, direct marketing, and Food-Other into the "Domestic Processed Food Business," and has also consolidated tomato and other primary processing and tomato and other secondary processing (*1) into the "International Business" as reportable segments.

Therefore, the Group has three reportable segments: "Domestic Processed Food Business," "International Business," and "Other." Segment profit is "core operating income (*2)," and the Board of Directors evaluates the performance of business segments based on this core operating income.

In addition, the Company finalized the provisional accounting treatment for business combinations in the fourth quarter of the previous fiscal year. The figures for the first nine months of the previous fiscal year reflect the details of this finalization.

*1 Tomato and other primary processing: manufacture and sale of paste and other products made with agricultural produce

Tomato and other secondary processing: manufacture and sale of pizza sauce and other products made by mainly adding seasonings to primary processed products of agricultural produce

*2 Core operating income is the profit index which measures recurring business performance by deducting cost of sales and selling, general and administrative expenses from revenue plus equity gains (losses) of affiliated companies.

The main products of each reportable segment are as follows:

Segment	Main products and merchandise, etc.
Beverages	Yasai Seikatsu 100 series, tomato juice, Yasai Ichinichi Kore Ippon, and others
Direct marketing	Vegetable beverages, supplements, soups, etc.
Food-Other	Tomato ketchup, tomato condiments, sauces, gifts and others
Domestic Processed Food Business
Tomato and other primary processing	Tomato paste, diced tomatoes, carrot juice, frozen Mediterranean vegetables, etc.
Tomato and other secondary processing	Pizza sauce, barbecue sauce, tomato ketchup, etc. *3
International Business
Other	Domestic Agri-Business, production and sales of seeds and seedlings, research and development of new varieties and cultivation techniques, real estate business, new businesses, etc.

*3 Within the International Business, businesses that do not fall under the categories of tomato and other primary processing or tomato and other secondary processing are included in "tomato and other secondary processing."

(Significant subsequent events)

(Acquisition of shares of Silbury Marketing Ltd. (and its conversion into a consolidated subsidiary), etc.)

Kagome Co., Ltd. (hereinafter, the “Company” or “Kagome”) resolved at the Board of Directors’ meeting held on November 21, 2025 to acquire all of the shares of Silbury Marketing Ltd. (hereinafter, “Silbury”) and make it a consolidated subsidiary. In accordance with this resolution, the Company made Silbury a consolidated subsidiary effective January 5, 2026.

1. Overview of the Transaction

- i. On January 5, 2026 (UK time), Kagome acquired 100% of the shares of Silbury and make it a consolidated subsidiary.
- ii. Kagome plans to transfer its shares in its consolidated subsidiary, Holding da Industria Transformadora do Tomate, SGPS S.A. (hereinafter, "HIT"), to Silbury by April 2026. As a result, Silbury will become HIT's parent company. Through this reorganization, Kagome will establish a structure in Europe that will enable close collaboration between marketing, development, production, and sales functions.

2. Background and Objectives and other Matters of the Share Acquisition

i. About Silbury

Silbury is a UK food distributor of processed tomato and oil products. Silbury has many customers in European countries mainly focused on the UK.

Along with Kagome, Silbury became an investor in HIT in 2007. Silbury holds the exclusive sales rights in the UK for processed tomato products produced by HIT, and the two companies have worked together to expand sales, particularly in the UK market.

ii. Background and Objective

Kagome’s International Business possesses the functions of tomato and other primary processing, and tomato and other secondary processing, and its strength lies in its ability to create value-added solutions that meet customer needs in each of these functions.

Kagome’s International Business leverages this strength to produce and sell processed tomato products and others mainly at its business bases in the US, Portugal, Australia, Taiwan, and India to food service and food manufacturing companies that operate regionally or globally. The proportion of the International Business in Kagome’s consolidated results is increasing year by year and Kagome is promoting further expansion of this business with an eye toward medium- to long-term growth.

The European market for processed tomato products is expected to continue to grow in the future, primarily in terms of food service companies. The market is characterized by a geographical division between major production areas (Italy, Portugal, Spain, etc.) and major consumption areas (UK, France, Germany, etc.). A characteristic of consumption areas is that local food service companies with deep roots in the region dominate the market. For this reason, in order to expand business there, it is extremely important to collaborate with distributors who can accurately grasp the needs of consumption areas and effectively connect with production areas.

By making Silbury, with which Kagome has built a long-standing relationship, a consolidated subsidiary and making it the parent company of HIT, Kagome will be able to build a business structure in Europe that will enable it to effectively coordinate marketing, development, production, and sales functions. This will increase Kagome's competitiveness in the European market and further expand its business footprint.
